

Youth Leadership Council APPLICATION

The Tennessee District Attorneys General Conference and Gov. Phil Bredesen have joined together to create the Meth Destroys Youth Leadership Council (YLC). The YLC will be made up of high school students from across Tennessee who want to raise awareness among their peers and in their communities about the devastating effects of meth.

While there will be hundreds of Council members, only 200 will be invited to represent their areas of the state at the Meth Destroys Youth Leadership Summit in downtown Nashville on April 25. At the Summit, YLC representatives will have the opportunity to meet with one another, former meth addicts, district attorneys and Gov. Bredesen to discuss how they can help stop the meth epidemic.*

Completed applications can be mailed to: Tennessee District Attorneys General Conference, 611 Commerce Street, Suite 2800, Nashville, TN 37203, or faxed to (615) 259-4040. The application can also be filled out online at www.MethFreeTN.org. Deadline for completed applications is Friday, March 24, 2006.

*Because of the Summit's statewide nature, limited space is available to students from each area of the state. YLC members will be notified if they are invited to participate in the Summit. A panel of Meth Destroys campaign representatives will make selections based on a number of factors to ensure Summit attendees are representative of Tennessee's population.
